the 7th October. As Mr. Campbell rejoined duty on the fore-noon of the 10th idem, he has overstayed his leave by 3 days as stated by him.

2. From the Certificate granted by the Asstt Accountant General, Madras, it is however seen that Mr. Campbell was, on the 27th July 1910, eligible only for 2 months and 9 days privilege leave. Possibly he would have earned an additional day's leave on the afternoon of the 27th idem as was ascertained by him from the Comptroller. ~~Accordingly~~ But, as the leave cannot under Art 446 of the N. S. R. be granted without a report from the Accountant General, Madras. a draft letter to him is submitted.

Sir,

With reference to my recent absence on Privilege leave, I find that I have overstayed my leave by three days. I learn also from the Comptroller that I am entitled to an extension of leave by one day. As this extension will save me one day's pay, I have the honour to request that I may be granted an extension of one day.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

I.C.S.
